This Form must be signed & faxed back along with an unexpired registration for the RV in which you are declaring on this page. Both documents must be faxed; this signed form & the registration.

I _____, intend to subscribe to Distant Network Services from

All American Direct for use on the vehicle with an approved registration number:

Vehicle Identification # _____

State: _____

Registration Renewal Date: _____ until _____ (example 2/10 to 2/11)

If you are a subscriber whose dish antenna is permanently attached to a recreational vehicle or a commercial truck, you are deemed an "unserved household" and are eligible to receive distant network signals.

HUD regulations (Title 24 Code of Federal Regulations, Section 3282.8) define "recreational vehicle" as a vehicle that is: (1) built on a single chassis; (2) 400 square feet or less when measured at the largest horizontal projections; (3) self-propelled or permanently towable by a light duty truck; and (4) designed primarily not for use as a permanent dwelling but as temporary living quarters for recreational, camping, travel, or seasonal use.

DOT regulations (Title 49 Code of Federal Regulations, Section 383.5) define "commercial motor vehicle" as a motor vehicle or combination of motor vehicles used in commerce to transport passengers or property if the motor vehicle: (a) has a gross combination weight rating of 11,794 kilograms or more (26,001 pounds or more) inclusive of a towed unit with a gross vehicle weight rating of more than 4,536 kilograms (10,000 pounds); or (b) has a gross vehicle weight rating of 11,794 or more kilograms (26,001 pounds or more); or (c) is designed to transport 16 or more passengers, including the driver; or (d) is of any size and is used in the transportation of materials found to be hazardous for the purpose of the Hazardous Materials Transportation Act and which require the motor vehicle to be placarded under the Hazardous Materials Regulations (Title 49 Code of Federal Regulations part 172, subpart F).

I understand that the misuse of this equipment will result in termination of my Distant Network Service and could lead to legal action against me.

By signing below, you are declaring that you are a subscriber who meets all of the above criteria.

Smart Card Information:

We will also need your Smart Card number and the Receiver number.

To find this information, please complete the following process:

- Go through your menu options on your remote until you find System Info.
- Once at the System Info screen, look for a number that starts with the letter S, this is your (S-number).
- Then look for one that starts with the letter R, this is your (R-number).
- These will be the only two numbers we will need.

If you have an older receiver and are unable to find the System Info Screen, follow the steps below to retrieve the needed information:

- Go to the front of the unit and you should find a small door with a card behind it.
- Pull out the card and the Smart Card (S-number) will be located on the card.
- After writing down the number, please reinsert the card.
- To get the (R-number), look at the back of your receiver & you should find it there.

If all else fails, please contact your local DISH Network dealer and they should be able to assist you.

List Receiver (R-number) here: _____

What Channels will I Receive?

If you are a qualified eligible customer, you may choose to receive the eligible (ABC-CBS-NBC-FOX) networks in SD.

Please circle the networks and the signal definition you are requesting:

SD (out of New York or San Francisco)

How do I pay for the Distant Networks?

We will activate your services as soon as we receive all needed information. We will invoice you for six (6) months of service, or you have the option to pay by credit card. If paying by credit card, we will charge your credit card monthly for the service. This will allow you to travel and not worry about receiving your invoice in the mail and missing any service. Please provide credit card information below. Please ensure we have a current billing address on file. If you wish to discuss alternate billing options, feel free to call us at the phone number located on your first bill. A payment is due at time of activation by credit card or check.
